The diagram consists of a central box labeled 'CORPS' in blue. To its left is a box labeled 'TÊTE' with six horizontal lines for writing. To its right is a box labeled 'HAUT DU CORPS' with four horizontal lines. Below the 'CORPS' box is a box labeled 'BAS DU CORPS' with four horizontal lines. In the center, between the 'TÊTE' and 'CORPS' boxes, are two illustrations: a cartoon boy with his hands on his head and a skeleton with its hands on its head.
